California Credit Union Enters Orange County with New Full-Service Santa Ana Branch

Credit Union's Regional Footprint Now Extends across Southern California, Spanning Los Angeles to San Diego Counties

Glendale, CA – March 2, 2020 – California Credit Union has expanded into Orange County, opening its first full-service branch in Santa Ana, California. With its new branch, the $3 billion credit union has grown its regional footprint across Southern California, with 25 branches extending from Los Angeles through San Diego counties.

“Expanding our regional footprint to connect our Los Angeles and San Diego service areas has been a key strategic goal, and we’re excited to take this first step in growing our retail presence in Orange County,” said California Credit Union President/CEO Steve O’Connell. “We now have a cohesive service network extending across the southland, allowing us to better support our loyal Orange County members and educators as part of our commitment to providing an extraordinary banking experience.

“We look forward to serving the needs of our new Orange County communities as well as offering a full suite of products and services tailored to educators in the market. We hope our new neighbors in Orange County will visit our branch to experience the California Credit Union difference with comprehensive financial products, competitive rates, and our own brand of truly personal service.”

The credit union’s new Santa Ana branch uses a contemporary design, integrating technology to enhance face-to-face service with interactive tablet technology stations and full-service financial specialists. The cashless branch has an open floor plan, offering free Wi-Fi, member lounge area, and 24-hour ATM services. Located at 1313 West 17th Street in Santa Ana, the branch is open Monday through Friday, 9am-5pm.

California Credit Union currently operates with dual headquarters in Glendale and San Diego, and serves members under its North Island Credit Union brand in the greater San Diego area.
