

Backup withholding

Backup withholding is a prepayment of tax for the Internal Revenue Service that is levied against someone if their name and social security number do not match or interest income and dividends were underreported on his or her tax return.

Were you notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that you are subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends on your tax return?

By selecting “Yes” on the application, you agree that you are not subject to backup withholding.
